'16A Normal term of Legislative Assembly	1
'(1) A general election of members of the Legislative Assembly must be held on the second Saturday in March in the third calendar year after the calendar year in which the last general election was held (the normal polling day).	2
'(2) However, in exceptional circumstances, the Governor may at any time, on the recommendation of the Premier and with the agreement of the Leader of the Opposition, by proclamation, order the polling day to be postponed to a Saturday not more than 35 days after the normal polling day (the postponed polling day).	6
Examples of exceptional circumstances—	12
1 An election for members of the House of Representatives or the Senate of the Commonwealth Parliament is to be held on the normal polling day.	13
2 A natural disaster has affected such a wide area of the State that the conduct of an election on the normal polling day would be impracticable.	16
'(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the Governor must dissolve the Legislative Assembly and issue the writ for a general election on the day (the normal dissolution day) that is 26 days before the normal polling day.	19
'(4) If the Legislative Assembly expires under the Constitution Act Amendment Act 1890 , section 2 before the normal dissolution day, the Governor must immediately issue the writ for a general election.	23
Note—	27
The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1890 , section 2 provides that the Legislative Assembly continues for 3 years after the day appointed for returning the writ for choosing that Assembly.	28
It is possible for the Legislative Assembly to expire under this provision before the normal dissolution day if the previous Assembly had been dissolved under section 16B late in a year with the general election held early in the following January and the writ returnable early in the following February.	31
'(5) If—	36
