13 No double jeopardy 10

A person is not liable to be punished for an act or omission that is an offence against the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland) if— 11
12
13

- (a) the act or omission is also an offence against— 14
  - (i) another law of this jurisdiction; or 15
  - (ii) a law of another participating jurisdiction; and 16
- (b) the person has been punished for the offence mentioned in paragraph (a). 17
18

14 Parliamentary scrutiny of national regulations 19

- (1) The Statutory Instruments Act 1992, sections 49 to 51 apply to a national regulation as if— 20 21
  - (a) a reference in those sections to subordinate legislation were a reference to a national regulation; and 22
23
  - (b) the reference to notified under section 47 in section 49 of that Act were a reference to published as mentioned in the Rail Safety National Law, section 265(1). 24
25
26

Note— 27

Generally speaking, the Statutory Instruments Act 1992, sections 49 to 51 deal with the tabling and disallowance of subordinate legislation and the limited saving of the operation of subordinate legislation that ceases to have effect. 28
29
30
31

- (2) The Legislative Standards Act 1992, part 4 applies to a national regulation as if—
- (a) a reference in that part to subordinate legislation were a reference to a national regulation; and
- (b) the reference to the responsible Minister in section 22(2) of that Act were a reference to the Minister administering the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland) Act 2016.
- Note—*
- Generally speaking, the Legislative Standards Act 1992, part 4 deals with the tabling and content of explanatory notes for Bills and subordinate legislation.
- (3) A committee of the Legislative Assembly may deal with a national regulation under the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001 as if a reference in that Act to subordinate legislation, or an item of subordinate legislation, were a reference to a national regulation.
- (4) For subsection (3), the Legislative Standards Act 1992, section 4 applies to a national regulation as if a reference in that section to subordinate legislation were a reference to a national regulation.
- Note—*
- Generally speaking, the Legislative Standards Act 1992, section 4 deals with the application of fundamental legislative principles to Bills and subordinate legislation.
- (5) If a national regulation ceases to have effect because of the operation of subsection (1), the national regulation ceases to have effect for the purposes of the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), but the cessation does not affect the application of the regulation in another jurisdiction.

- preliminary breath test means a test to obtain an indication of the concentration of alcohol in a person's breath using a device approved by regulation. 4
6
- preliminary saliva test means a test to obtain an indication of the presence of a prescribed drug in a person's saliva using a device approved by regulation. 7
9
- preliminary test means a preliminary breath test or a preliminary saliva test. 10 11
- prescribed concentration of alcohol has the same meaning as in the national law, section 128(5). 12 13
- prescribed drug has the same meaning as in the national law, section 128(5). 14 15
- prescribed medical certificate means a certificate, in the approved form, from a doctor stating that— 16 17
- (a) because of a stated illness or disability, a rail safety worker is incapable of providing a specimen of breath or saliva, or both; or 18 19
20
- (b) providing a specimen of breath or saliva, or both, could adversely affect a rail safety worker's health. 21
22
- qualified assistant see section 16(1). 23
- saliva analysis means an analysis of a specimen of saliva by a laboratory test approved by regulation. 24 25
- specimen for analysis means a sufficient specimen of breath or saliva, or both, for analysis. 26 27
- specimen for preliminary testing means a sufficient specimen of breath or saliva, or both, for a preliminary test. 28 29
- sufficient specimen, of breath or saliva for a preliminary test or for analysis, means a specimen of breath or saliva that— 30 31
- (a) is sufficient to enable the preliminary test or analysis to be carried out; and 32
33

[s 16]

	(b) is provided in a way that enables the objective of the preliminary test or analysis to be satisfactorily achieved.	1 2
16	Qualified assistants	3
	(1) For this part, a person is a qualified assistant if the person's duties include the taking of blood.	4 5
	(2) A qualified assistant may take a specimen of a rail safety worker's blood only if directed to take the specimen by a doctor or nurse.	6 7 8
	(3) In a proceeding for an offence against the national law, part 3, unless the contrary is proved, a qualified assistant who takes a specimen of blood from a rail safety worker for a laboratory test is taken to have been directed by a doctor or nurse to take the specimen.	9 10 11 12 13
17	How to read particular references in national law, pt 3, div 9	14 15
	For the purposes of the national law, part 3, division 9—	16
	(a) a reference in that division to a drug screening test is taken to be a reference to a preliminary saliva test; and	17 18
	(b) a reference in that division to oral fluid is taken to be a reference to saliva; and	19 20
	(c) a reference in that division to an oral fluid analysis is taken to be a reference to a saliva analysis.	21 22
18	Using breath sample to find blood alcohol concentration	23
	(1) For the national law, part 3 and this part, if the concentration of alcohol in a rail safety worker's breath is a particular number of grams of alcohol for each 210 litres of breath, the worker's blood alcohol concentration ( BAC ) is to be regarded as being that number of grams of alcohol for each 100 ml of blood.	24 25 26 27 28 29

- (2) A device used to conduct a preliminary breath test is taken to be for the purpose of providing an indication of a rail safety worker's BAC, or an indication of whether or not a rail safety worker has the prescribed concentration of alcohol, whether the device gives the indication directly or enables it to be derived under subsection (1).
- (3) A breath analysing instrument is taken to be for the purpose of ascertaining a rail safety worker's BAC by analysis of a sample of the worker's breath, whether the instrument gives the BAC directly as the analysis result or enables it to be derived under subsection (1).

Division 2                      Application of national law, part 3, division 9 and this part

19            Application of national law, ss 126 and 127

The national law, sections 126 and 127 apply subject to this part.

20            Limitation on when authorised person may exercise powers in relation to train driver

- (1) An authorised person may not exercise a power under division 3 or 4 in relation to a train driver if a police officer is exercising a power under the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995, section 80 in relation to the train driver.
- (2) In this section—
- train driver means a rail safety worker—
- (a) found by a police officer driving, attempting to put in motion, or in charge of, a train as mentioned in the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995, section 80(2) or (2A); or
- (b) who a police officer reasonably suspects was driving, attempting to put in motion, or in charge of, a train in

Division 3                      Provision of specimens of breath or saliva for preliminary test 3 4

21            Requirement to submit to preliminary test 5

- (1) An authorised person may require a rail safety worker to 6 submit to 1 or both of the following— 7
- (a) a preliminary breath test under the national law, section 8
126; 9
- (b) a preliminary saliva test under the national law, section 10
127. 11
- (2) This division applies for the purpose of making the 12 requirement. 13

22            Direction to provide specimen of breath or saliva 14

- The authorised person may direct the rail safety worker— 15
- (a) to provide in accordance with the requirement 1 or more 16 specimens for preliminary testing; and 17
- (b) to comply with any reasonable requirement for the 18 purpose of providing each of the specimens to which the 19 direction is subject. 20

23            Direction to provide additional specimen of breath or saliva 21 22

- (1) The authorised person may direct the rail safety worker to 23 provide additional specimens for preliminary testing to enable 24 the preliminary test to be carried out if— 25
- (a) the worker fails to provide a sufficient specimen for 26
preliminary testing under section 22; or 27

(b)	the worker provides a sufficient specimen for preliminary testing under section 22 but—	1 2
(i)	the device used for the preliminary test is or becomes defective, precluding its satisfactory operation to analyse the specimen of breath or saliva; or	3 4 5 6
(ii)	for any reason, it is not possible to use or continue using the device to conduct the preliminary test; or	7 8
(iii)	for another reason, it is not possible to complete the preliminary test.	9 10
(2)	The authorised person may direct the rail safety worker to comply with any reasonable requirement for the purpose of providing an additional specimen.	11 12 13
24	Time limit on giving direction to provide specimen for preliminary testing	14 15
(1)	This section applies if a rail safety worker is directed under section 22 or 23 to provide a specimen for preliminary testing.	16 17
(2)	The preliminary test must be commenced as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 3 hours after the relevant time.	18 19 20
(3)	For subsection (2), the preliminary test commences when the rail safety worker is first presented with the device used for the preliminary test for the purpose of providing the specimen.	21 22 23
(4)	In this section— relevant time means—	24 25
(a)	when the authorised person found the rail safety worker doing the thing mentioned in the national law, section 126(1)(a) to (e) or 127(1)(a) to (e); or	26 27 28
(b)	when the rail safety worker is reasonably suspected by the authorised person to have been doing the thing mentioned in the national law, section 126(1)(a) to (e) or 127(1)(a) to (e).	29 30 31 32

[s 25]

25	Limitation on direction to provide specimen for preliminary testing—prescribed medical certificate	1 2
(1)	This section applies if—	3
(a)	an authorised person directs a rail safety worker under section 22 or 23 to provide a specimen for preliminary testing; and	4 5 6
(b)	the worker gives the authorised person a prescribed medical certificate relating to providing that type of specimen.	7 8 9
(2)	The authorised person must not require the rail safety worker to comply with the direction, but may instead give the worker a direction under section 22 or 23 to provide a specimen of the type to which the prescribed medical certificate does not relate.	10 11 12 13 14
Division 4	Provision of specimens of breath or saliva for analysis or blood for testing	15 16 17
26	Application of division	18
	This division applies if a rail safety worker is directed under division 3 by an authorised person to provide a specimen for preliminary testing and—	19 20 21
(a)	it appears to the authorised person, because of a preliminary test carried out by the authorised person on the specimen, that the worker is over the prescribed concentration of alcohol or that a prescribed drug is present in the worker’s saliva; or	22 23 24 25 26
(b)	the worker—	27
(i)	fails to comply with the direction; or	28
(ii)	declines to wait for a reasonable time to enable the preliminary test to be carried out satisfactorily; or	29 30

	(c) the worker is not required to comply with the direction because the worker gives the authorised person a prescribed medical certificate relating to providing that type of specimen.	1 2 3 4
27	Requirement to submit to breath analysis, saliva analysis or blood test	5 6
	(1) The authorised person who directed the rail safety worker to provide a specimen for preliminary testing may require the worker to submit to—	7 8 9
	(a) if section 26(a) or (b) applies—1 or more of the following—	10 11
	(i) a breath analysis under the national law, section 126;	12 13
	(ii) a saliva analysis under the national law, section 127;	14 15
	(iii) a blood test under the national law, section 127; or	16
	(b) if section 26(c) applies—a blood test under the national law, section 127.	17 18
	(2) This division applies for the purpose of making the requirement.	19 20
28	Direction to provide specimen of breath, saliva or blood	21
	(1) An authorised person may direct the rail safety worker—	22
	(a) to provide in accordance with the requirement, at a place and time stated by the authorised person, 1 or more of the following—	23 24 25
	(i) a specimen of the worker's breath for a breath analysis;	26 27
	(ii) a specimen of the worker's saliva for a saliva analysis;	28 29
	(iii) a specimen of the worker's blood for a laboratory test; and	30 31

[s 29]

---

(b) to comply with any reasonable requirement for the purpose of providing each of the specimens to which the direction relates.

(2) This section does not limit section 34 or 35.

Note—

See also sections 34 to 36 and 56 and the national law, sections 126(3) and 127(3) for provisions about compliance with a direction given under this section.

29 Direction to provide additional specimens of breath, saliva or blood

(1) Subsection (2) applies if the rail safety worker is directed under section 28(1) by an authorised person to provide a specimen of the worker's breath or saliva for analysis.

(2) The authorised person may direct the rail safety worker to provide additional specimens of breath or saliva to enable the analysis to be carried out if—

(a) the worker fails to provide a sufficient specimen for analysis; or

(b) the worker provides a sufficient specimen for analysis but—

(i) the instrument used for the analysis is or becomes defective precluding its satisfactory operation to analyse the specimen of breath or saliva; or

(ii) for any reason, it is not possible to use or continue using the instrument to conduct the analysis; or

(iii) if the worker provides a specimen of breath—the instrument indicates the presence of alcohol or some other substance in the worker's mouth; or

(iv) for any other reason, it is not possible to complete the analysis.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if the rail safety worker is directed under section 28(1) by an authorised person to provide a specimen of the worker's blood for a laboratory test.

(4) The authorised person may direct the rail safety worker to provide additional specimens of blood to enable the laboratory test to be carried out if the worker fails to provide the specimen required for the test.

(5) The authorised person may direct the rail safety worker to comply with any reasonable requirement for the purpose of providing an additional specimen under subsection (2) or (4).

(6) This section does not limit section 34 or 35.

Note—

See also sections 34 to 36 and 56 and the national law, sections 126(3) and 127(3) for provisions about compliance with a direction given under this section.

30 Direction to provide specimen of breath at police station

(1) This section applies if the rail safety worker is directed under section 28 or 29 to provide a specimen of breath for analysis at a police station.

(2) A police officer who carries out a breath analysis on a specimen of breath provided by the rail safety worker at the police station is taken to be an instrument operator for the purposes of this part.

31 Time limit on commencing breath or saliva analysis or blood test

(1) This section applies if the rail safety worker is directed under section 28 or 29 to provide a specimen of breath or saliva for analysis or a specimen of blood for a laboratory test.

(2) The breath analysis, saliva analysis or blood test must be commenced as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 3 hours after the relevant time.

(3) For subsection (2), the breath analysis commences when the rail safety worker is first presented with the breath analysing instrument for the purpose of providing the specimen of breath.

[s 32]

- (4) For subsection (2), the saliva analysis or blood test commences when the rail safety worker is first directed to provide the specimen of saliva or blood.
- (5) In this section—
relevant time means—
  - (a) when an authorised person found the rail safety worker doing the thing mentioned in the national law, section 126(1)(a) to (e) or 127(1)(a) to (e); or
  - (b) when the rail safety worker is reasonably suspected by an authorised person to have been doing the thing mentioned in the national law, section 126(1)(a) to (e) or 127(1)(a) to (e).

32 Limitation on direction to provide specimen of breath or saliva for analysis—prescribed medical certificate

An authorised person must not direct the rail safety worker under section 28 or 29 to provide a specimen of breath or saliva for analysis if—

- (a) the worker gives the authorised person a prescribed medical certificate relating to providing that type of specimen; or
- (b) the worker was not required to comply with a direction under division 3 to provide a specimen of that type for preliminary testing because the worker gave the authorised person who directed the worker under division 3 a prescribed medical certificate relating to providing that type of specimen.

33 Rail safety worker may request duplicate specimen of saliva or blood

- (1) This section applies if the rail safety worker is directed under section 28(1) or 29(2) by an authorised person to provide—
  - (a) a specimen of saliva for a saliva analysis; or
  - (b) a specimen of blood for a laboratory test.

- (2) The rail safety worker may, when or immediately after the specimen of saliva or blood is provided, ask the relevant person to provide the worker with a duplicate specimen.
- (3) The relevant person must, subject to the rail safety worker providing the duplicate specimen, comply with a request under subsection (2).

Note—

See also section 57 in relation to subsection (3).

- (4) In this section—
- duplicate specimen means a second specimen of saliva or blood (as applicable).
- relevant person means the authorised person or health care professional who is taking or took the specimen of saliva or blood mentioned in subsection (1).

34 Requirements for providing specimen of breath or saliva for analysis

- (1) A regulation may prescribe requirements about how a specimen of breath or saliva for analysis must be provided.
- (2) To comply with a direction under this part to provide a specimen of breath or saliva for analysis, a rail safety worker must comply with the prescribed requirements.

35 Compliance with direction to provide specimen of blood for laboratory test

- (1) This section applies if a rail safety worker is directed under this part by an authorised person to provide a specimen of the worker's blood for a laboratory test.
- (2) To comply with the direction, the rail safety worker must allow a health care professional to take the specimen when, and in the manner, directed by the health care professional.

[s 36]

36	Health care professional may take specimen of blood without consent	1 2
	It is lawful for a health care professional to take a specimen of a rail safety worker's blood under this part even though the rail safety worker has not consented to the taking.	3 4 5
Division 5	Conduct of analysis and testing of specimens	6 7
37	Who may operate breath analysing instrument	8
	(1) A breath analysing instrument must be operated by—	9
	(a) an authorised person; or	10
	(b) a police officer who is an instrument operator under section 30.	11 12
	(2) Despite subsection (1), a police officer may operate a breath analysing instrument only if the police officer is authorised by the commissioner under the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 , section 80(8G) to operate the instrument.	13 14 15 16 17
	(3) A certificate mentioned in the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 , section 80(8I) is, unless the contrary is proved, conclusive evidence that the police officer named in the certificate is authorised for the purposes of subsection (2).	18 19 20 21 22
38	Delivery of specimen to laboratory	23
	(1) This section applies if a specimen of saliva or blood is provided as directed under this part.	24 25
	(2) As soon as practicable after the specimen is provided, the authorised person who gave the direction must ensure the specimen is delivered, in the way prescribed by regulation, to the laboratory of an analyst.	26 27 28 29

- (3) In a proceeding, each of the following is sufficient evidence of compliance with subsection (2)—
- (a) evidence given by the authorised person, or a person who delivered the specimen for the authorised person, of the delivery of the specimen to the laboratory in a way prescribed by regulation;
  - (b) the production in evidence of an analyst's certificate stating the specimen was delivered to the laboratory by or for the authorised person.

Division 6                      Evidentiary matters                      10

Subdivision 1              Evidence of breath analysis              11

39              Breath analysis certificate              12

- (1) As soon as practicable after a specimen of breath provided as directed under this part has been analysed, the instrument operator must—
- (a) sign 2 copies of a certificate (a breath analysis certificate) in writing stating—
    - (i) the concentration of alcohol indicated by the analysis to be present in the blood or breath of the rail safety worker whose breath has been analysed; and
    - (ii) the date and time the analysis was made; and
  - (b) give 1 copy of the certificate to—
    - (i) the worker; or
    - (ii) if requested by the worker—another person on the worker's behalf; and
  - (c) either—
    - (i) if the operator is the authorised person who gave the direction—retain 1 copy of the certificate; or

[s 40]

(ii)	otherwise—give 1 copy of the certificate to the authorised person who gave the direction.	1 2
(2)	A copy of a breath analysis certificate is—	3
(a)	evidence that the instrument used to analyse the specimen of breath to which the certificate relates was a breath analysing instrument; and	4 5 6
(b)	evidence that that instrument was in proper working order and properly operated by the instrument operator; and	7 8 9
(c)	evidence that all requirements prescribed by regulation relating to breath analysing instruments were complied with in relation to that instrument; and	10 11 12
(d)	presumed to have been given to the rail safety worker to whom the certificate relates, unless the contrary is proved.	13 14 15
40	Evidence from breath analysing instrument	16
(1)	This section applies to evidence of the concentration of alcohol indicated to be present in the blood or breath of a rail safety worker by a breath analysing instrument that is given by—	17 18 19 20
(a)	the instrument operator; or	21
(b)	a copy of a breath analysis certificate purporting to be signed by the operator.	22 23
(2)	Subject to subsection (3), the evidence is conclusive evidence of the concentration of alcohol present in the blood or breath of the rail safety worker at all material times.	24 25 26
(3)	The rail safety worker may negative the evidence by proving that, at the time of its operation, the breath analysing instrument was not in proper working order or was not properly operated.	27 28 29 30
(4)	In this section—	31
	material times means—	32

- (a) when the rail safety worker provided the specimen of breath; and 1 2
- (b) any time during the 3-hour period ending at the time the worker provided the specimen. 3 4

Subdivision 2 Evidence about submission to breath analysis, saliva analysis or blood test 5
7

41 Certificate about requirement to submit to breath analysis, saliva analysis or blood test 8 9

- (1) This section applies if a rail safety worker is required under this part by an authorised person to submit to a breath analysis, saliva analysis or blood test. 10
11
12
- (2) As soon as practicable after making the requirement, the authorised person must sign 2 copies of a certificate in writing stating each of the following— 13
14
15
  - (a) the name of the rail safety worker; 16
  - (b) the name of the authorised person; 17
  - (c) the date on which, and the place and time at which, the requirement was made; 18 19
  - (d) whether the requirement was to submit to a breath analysis, saliva analysis or blood test; 20 21
  - (e) in relation to the direction to provide a specimen for preliminary testing given under division 3 before the requirement was made— 22
23
24
    - (i) the date on which, and the place and time at which, the direction was given; and 25
26
    - (ii) whether the direction was to provide a specimen of breath or saliva, or both, for a preliminary test; 27
28
  - (f) the reason, as mentioned in section 26(a) to (c), that the requirement was made. 29

42	Certificate about failure to provide specimen of breath or saliva for analysis	1 2
(1)	This section applies if—	3
(a)	a rail safety worker is directed under this part to provide a specimen of the worker’s breath or saliva for analysis; and	4 5 6
(b)	the worker fails to provide a specimen for analysis as directed; and	7 8
(c)	the instrument operator—	9
(i)	is the authorised person who gave the direction; or	10
(ii)	witnessed the giving of the direction.	11
(2)	As soon as practicable after the rail safety worker fails to provide the specimen, the instrument operator must sign 2 copies of a certificate in writing stating each of the following—	12 13 14 15
(a)	the name of the rail safety worker;	16
(b)	the name of the authorised person who gave the direction;	17 18
(c)	the name of the operator;	19
(d)	if the operator is not the authorised person mentioned in paragraph (b)—that the operator witnessed the giving of the direction to the worker;	20 21 22
(e)	whether the direction was to provide a specimen of breath or saliva;	23 24
(f)	the name and patent number, or name and model number, appearing on the breath analysing instrument;	25 26
(g)	that the worker failed to provide a specimen of breath or saliva for analysis as directed;	27 28
(h)	details of the worker’s failure to provide a specimen.	29

43	Certificate about failure to allow health care professional to take specimen of blood	1 2
(1)	This section applies if—	3
(a)	a rail safety worker is directed under this part to provide a specimen of the worker's blood for a laboratory test; and	4 5 6
(b)	the worker fails to allow a health care professional to take the specimen as required under section 35; and	7 8
(c)	the health care professional witnessed the giving of the direction.	9 10
(2)	As soon as practicable after the rail safety worker fails to provide the specimen, the health care professional must sign 2 copies of a certificate in writing stating each of the following—	11 12 13 14
(a)	the name of the rail safety worker;	15
(b)	the name of the authorised person who gave the direction;	16 17
(c)	the name of the health care professional;	18
(d)	that the health care professional witnessed the giving of the direction;	19 20
(e)	that the worker failed to allow the health care professional to take the specimen;	21 22
(f)	details of the worker's failure to allow the health care professional to take the specimen.	23 24
44	Requirement to give certificate to rail safety worker and authorised person	25 26
	As soon as practicable after signing a certificate under this subdivision about a rail safety worker, a person must—	27 28
(a)	give 1 copy of the certificate to—	29
(i)	the rail safety worker ; or	30

[s 45]

- (ii) if requested by the worker—another person on the worker’s behalf; and
- (b) either—
  - (i) if the person is the authorised person who gave the direction—retain 1 copy of the certificate; or
  - (ii) otherwise—give 1 copy of the certificate to the authorised person who gave the direction.

45 Certificate evidence

- (1) A certificate signed under section 41 is, unless the contrary is proved, conclusive evidence of each of the following—
  - (a) a requirement to submit to a breath analysis, saliva analysis or blood test was made under this part of the rail safety worker named in the certificate by the authorised person named in the certificate;
  - (b) before the requirement mentioned in paragraph (a) was made, a direction to provide a specimen for preliminary testing was given under division 3 to the rail safety worker named in the certificate by the authorised person named in the certificate;
  - (c) the reason, as mentioned in section 26(a) to (c), that the requirement mentioned in paragraph (a) was made.
- (2) A certificate signed under section 42 is, unless the contrary is proved, conclusive evidence of each of the following—
  - (a) a direction to provide a specimen of breath or saliva for analysis was given under this part to the rail safety worker named in the certificate by the authorised person named in the certificate;
  - (b) the worker failed to comply with the direction;
  - (c) if the direction was to provide a specimen of breath for analysis—a breath analysing instrument was available at the place and time at which the worker was to have provided the specimen in compliance with the direction.

- (3) A certificate signed under section 43 is, unless the contrary is proved, conclusive evidence of each of the following—
- (a) a direction to provide a specimen of blood for a laboratory test was given under this part to the rail safety worker named in the certificate by the authorised person named in the certificate;
  - (b) the worker failed to comply with the direction.

Subdivision 3      Evidence about laboratory testing

46      Analyst's certificate

- (1) This section applies if an analyst carries out a laboratory test on a specimen of saliva or blood obtained under this part (the delivered specimen).
- (2) As soon as practicable after carrying out the test, the analyst must sign a certificate (an analyst's certificate) stating each of the following—
- (a) that the delivered specimen was received at the laboratory of the analyst;
  - (b) the name of the rail safety worker from whom the delivered specimen was obtained;
  - (c) the date on which, and the place and time at which, the delivered specimen was obtained from the rail safety worker;
  - (d) the name of the authorised person from whom the delivered specimen was received;
  - (e) whether the delivered specimen is a specimen of saliva or blood;
  - (f) the date on which, and the place at which, the analyst or another analyst carried out the laboratory test;
  - (g) if the laboratory test was carried out by another analyst—that the analyst who signed the certificate—

[s 47]

	(i) examined the laboratory's records about the receipt, storage and testing of the delivered specimen; and	1 2 3
	(ii) confirms that the records show that all quality assurance procedures for the receipt, storage and testing of the delivered specimen in place in the laboratory at the time of the test were complied with;	4 5 6 7 8
	(h) if the delivered specimen was a specimen of saliva—whether any drug or metabolite of any drug was indicated by the test to be present in the worker's saliva and, if so, the name of the drug;	9 10 11 12
	(i) if the delivered specimen was a specimen of blood—	13
	(i) the concentration of alcohol in the worker's blood indicated by the test; and	14 15
	(ii) whether any drug or metabolite of any drug was indicated by the test to be present in the worker's blood and, if so, the name of the drug.	16 17 18
47	Requirement to give analyst's certificate to authorised person and rail safety worker	19 20
	(1) As soon as practicable after signing an analyst's certificate under section 46 about a specimen provided by a rail safety worker as directed under this part, an analyst must give 2 copies of the certificate to the authorised person who gave the direction.	21 22 23 24 25
	(2) As soon as practicable after being given the copies of the analyst's certificate, the authorised person must give 1 copy to the rail safety worker, either personally or by registered post.	26 27 28
48	Evidence from laboratory test	29
	(1) This section applies to evidence given by an analyst or analyst's certificate of—	30 31

- 49      Production of analyst's certificate 1
- (1) This section applies if a laboratory test has been conducted 2 under this part on a specimen of a rail safety worker's saliva or 3 blood. 4
- (2) A court dealing with a charge against the rail safety worker 5 for an offence against the national law, part 3 must adjourn the 6 hearing as required to— 7
- (a) enable the production in evidence of the analyst's 8 certificate about the specimen; and 9
- (b) if a copy of the certificate has not been given to the 10 worker under section 47(2)—ensure a copy of the 11 certificate is given to the worker at least 3 days before 12
        the certificate is produced in evidence. 13
- (3) This section does not prevent the court, in its discretion, 14 dealing with the charge for the offence before the result of the 15 laboratory test of the specimen is known if— 16
- (a) the rail safety worker applies to the court for it to deal 17 with the charge under this subsection; and 18
- (b) the worker pleads guilty to the offence; and 19
- (c) the court is satisfied that the facts available to be put 20 forward by the prosecution, and unchallenged by the 21 worker, are sufficient to enable it to properly deal with 22
        the matter. 23
- 50      Evidentiary provision for laboratory equipment 24
- In a proceeding for an offence against the national law, part 3, 25 unless the contrary is proved, equipment used in a laboratory 26 test of a specimen of saliva or blood is to be taken to have 27 given accurate results. 28

Subdivision 4	Other evidentiary matters	1
51	Certificate by health care professional about taking of specimen	2 3
(1)	This section applies if a health care professional takes a specimen of saliva for analysis, or a specimen of blood for a laboratory test, under this part.	4 5 6
(2)	The health care professional must sign a certificate in writing stating—	7 8
(a)	that the health care professional took a specimen of saliva for analysis, or a specimen of blood for a laboratory test, from a rail safety worker; and	9 10 11
(b)	the name of the worker; and	12
(c)	the date on which, and the place and time at which, the specimen was taken.	13 14
52	Certificate by particular person is evidence of matters relating to that person	15 16
(1)	This section applies to a certificate that is or purports to be signed by any of the following—	17 18
(a)	an instrument operator under subdivision 1 or 2;	19
(b)	a health care professional under subdivision 2 or section 51;	20 21
(c)	an analyst under section 46.	22
(2)	The certificate is, unless the contrary is proved, conclusive evidence—	23 24
(a)	that the signature on the certificate is the signature of the person by whom the certificate purports to be made; and	25 26
(b)	of all matters stated in the certificate, including the status, authority or qualification of the person by whom the certificate purports to be made.	27 28 29
(3)	This section does not limit section 39 or 45.	30

Division 7	Provisions about particular types of evidence obtained under this part	1 2
53	Admissibility of evidence of alcohol or drug in proceedings for particular offences	3 4
(1)	This section applies to evidence obtained under this part of any or all of the following—	5 6
(a)	the concentration of alcohol in a rail safety worker's breath or blood at a time material to the time of a relevant offence;	7 8 9
(b)	the presence of a prescribed drug or a metabolite of a prescribed drug in a rail safety worker's saliva or blood at a time material to the time of a relevant offence;	10 11 12
(c)	the presence of a drug other than a prescribed drug or a metabolite of a drug other than a prescribed drug in a rail safety worker's blood at a time material to the time of a relevant offence.	13 14 15 16
(2)	The evidence—	17
(a)	is admissible in a proceeding against the rail safety worker for the relevant offence, whether—	18 19
(i)	by way of summary proceedings under the Justices Act 1886 ; or	20 21
(ii)	on indictment; and	22
(b)	must not be excluded from a proceeding mentioned in paragraph (a) because the evidence was obtained under this part.	23 24 25
(3)	In a proceeding mentioned in subsection (2), the evidence—	26
(a)	may be given in the same manner, whether by a witness or by a certificate, as it may be given under this part in another proceeding; and	27 28 29
(b)	is admissible in the same circumstances and to the same extent as it would be admissible under this part in another proceeding; and	30 31 32

- (c) has the same evidentiary value in relation to the same matters and times provided for under this part as in another proceeding. 1
3
- (4) In this section— 4
relevant offence means— 5
- (a) an offence against the national law, section 58 or 128; or 6
- (b) an indictable offence in connection with a prescribed notifiable occurrence. 7 8
- 54 Defendant to give notice of intention to lead evidence of particular matters 9 10
- (1) This section applies if, in a proceeding, a defendant proposes to lead evidence— 11 12
- (a) under section 40(3) that, at the time of the operation of a breath analysing instrument, it was not in proper working order or was not properly operated; or 13
14
15
- (b) under section 48(5) that the result of a laboratory test of saliva or blood was not correct; or 16
17
- (c) under section 52(2) in relation to a certificate mentioned in section 52(1) that— 18 19
- (i) the signature on the certificate is not the signature of the person by whom the certificate purports to be made; or 20 21
22
- (ii) a matter stated in a certificate mentioned in section 52(1) is not correct. 23 24
- (2) The defendant must give the prosecution at least 14 clear days' notice of the defendant's proposal to lead the evidence. 25
26
- (3) For subsection (2), the notice must— 27
- (a) be in writing signed by the defendant or the defendant's solicitor; and 28 29
- (b) if it is for evidence mentioned in subsection (1)(a)—state the grounds on which the defendant intends to rely to prove the breath analysing instrument 30

55	Particular persons may be required to attend hearing with leave of court	12 13
	(1) This section applies if, in a proceeding, a defendant gives a notice under section 54(2) for evidence mentioned in section 54(1)(b).	14 15 16
	(2) The defendant may, with leave of the court, require a person who was involved in the taking, receipt, storage or testing of the specimen of saliva or blood to attend the hearing of the proceeding to give evidence.	17 18 19 20
	(3) The court may grant leave if satisfied—	21
	(a) there is a reasonable possibility that an irregularity or defect exists in relation to the taking, receipt, storage or testing of the specimen of saliva or blood about which the person is able to give evidence; or	22 23 24 25
	(b) it is otherwise in the interests of justice that the person be required to attend the hearing to give evidence relevant to the proceeding.	26 27 28

Division 8	Miscellaneous	1
56	Defence to prosecution for offence against national law, s 126(3) or 127(3)	2
		3
(1)	It is a defence to the prosecution of a rail safety worker for an offence against the national law, section 126(3) or 127(3) in relation to a direction given by an authorised person under section 126(2) or 127(2) of that law or this part for the worker to prove that—	4
		5
		7
		8
(a)	the direction was not lawfully given; or	9
(b)	if the direction was to provide a specimen of breath or saliva—immediately after the direction was given, the worker gave the authorised person a prescribed medical certificate relating to providing that type of specimen; or	10
		13
(c)	the worker had another reasonable excuse.	14
(2)	For subsection (1)(c), it is not a reasonable excuse that complying with the direction might tend to incriminate the rail safety worker.	15
		17
57	Omission is not an offence	18
	To remove any doubt, it is declared that a person does not commit an offence against this or another Act only because the person omits to do an act required under—	19
		20
		21
(a)	section 33(3); or	22
(b)	division 5 or 6.	23

Part 4	Funding for Australian	1
	Transport Safety Bureau under	2
	Transport Safety Investigation	3
	Act 2003 (Cwlth)	4
58	Definition for part	5
	In this part—	6
	rail safety investigation fee see section 59(1).	7
59	Rail safety investigation fees	8
(1)	An accredited person prescribed by regulation must pay, for the period prescribed by regulation, the fee (a rail safety investigation fee ) prescribed by regulation to provide funding for the Australian Transport Safety Bureau to carry out its functions under the Transport Safety Investigation Act 2003 (Cwlth) in relation to transport safety matters relating to rail vehicles in the State.	9 10 11 12 13 14 15
(2)	A rail safety investigation fee must be paid to the chief executive on or before the date prescribed by regulation.	16 17
(3)	The chief executive may accept payment of a rail safety investigation fee payable by an accredited person under an agreement made with the person, whether by payment of instalments or otherwise.	18 19 20 21
(4)	The chief executive may—	22
(a)	waive payment of the whole or part of a rail safety investigation fee payable by an accredited person; or	23 24
(b)	refund the whole or part of a rail safety investigation fee paid by an accredited person.	25 26
60	Requirement to give chief executive information	27
(1)	If requested by the chief executive, an accredited person must, as provided by subsection (2), give the chief executive the	28 29 information prescribed by regulation for the purpose of calculating, administering and collecting a rail safety investigation fee.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

(2) The information under subsection (1) must be given—

- (a) in the way prescribed by regulation; and
- (b) within the period prescribed by regulation; and
- (c) for the periods prescribed by regulation.

61 Recovery of rail safety investigation fees

(1) A rail safety investigation fee payable under section 59 is a debt due to the State and may be recovered—

- (a) in summary proceedings under the Justices Act 1886; or
- (b) by action for a debt in a court with jurisdiction for the recovery of the amount claimed.

(2) A rail safety investigation fee payable under section 59 may also be recovered in a proceeding for an offence against this Act or the national law.

(3) An order made under subsection (2) is enforceable under the Justices Act 1886 as an order for payment of money made by a magistrate under that Act.

(4) An order made under subsection (2)—

- (a) may be filed in the registry of a Magistrates Court under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921; and
- (b) on being filed, is taken to be an order made by a Magistrates Court constituted under that Act and may be enforced accordingly.

(5) Before taking any steps under this section to recover a rail safety investigation fee payable under section 59 by an accredited person, the chief executive must give the person a written notice stating—

- (a) the amount the chief executive seeks to recover; and

[s 63]

- (4) Despite any other Act or law, ONRSR may authorise the chief executive to disclose information provided under subsection (3) even if the information was given to ONRSR in confidence. 1
4
- (5) Nothing done, or authorised to be done, by the chief executive in acting under subsection (1) or (2) or ONRSR in acting under subsection (3) or (4)— 5
7
  - (a) constitutes a breach of, or default under, an Act or other law; or 8 9
  - (b) constitutes a breach of, or default under, a contract, agreement, understanding or undertaking; or 10 11
  - (c) constitutes a breach of a duty of confidence, whether arising by contract, in equity or by custom or in any other way; or 12
13
14
  - (d) constitutes a civil or criminal wrong; or 15
  - (e) terminates an agreement or obligation, or fulfils any condition that allows a person to terminate an agreement or obligation, or gives rise to any other right or remedy; or 16
17
18
19
  - (f) releases a surety or any other obligee wholly or in part from an obligation. 20 21
- (6) In this section— 22

personal information means information or an opinion, 23 including information or an opinion forming part of a 24 database, whether true or not, and whether recorded in a 25 material form or not, about an individual whose identity is 26 apparent, or can reasonably be found out, from the 27 information or opinion. 28

63 Regulation-making power 29

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act. 30 31
- (2) A regulation may modify the application of a national regulation in this jurisdiction. 32

Part 6	Repeal and transitional provisions	1 2
Division 1	Repeal of Transport (Rail Safety) Act 2010	3 4
64	Repeal	5
	The Transport (Rail Safety) Act 2010, No. 6 is repealed.	6
Division 2	Transitional provisions	7
Subdivision 1	Preliminary	8
65	Definition for division	9
	In this division—	10
	repealed Act means the repealed Transport (Rail Safety) Act 2010 .	11 12
Subdivision 2	Applicable railway operations	13
66	Railway operations to which repealed Act did not apply	14
(1)	This section applies to a person who—	15
(a)	immediately before the commencement, was carrying out, or causing or permitting to be carried out, railway operations to which the repealed Act did not apply; and	16 17 18
(b)	continues to carry out, or cause or permit to be carried out, the railway operations on and after the commencement.	19 20 21

- (2) The person can not be prosecuted for an offence against the national law, section 62(1) in respect of the railway operations if the act or omission constituting the offence—
- (a) occurs during the transitional period; and
- (b) had it occurred before the commencement, would not have constituted an offence against the repealed Act, section 39(1).
- (3) In this section—
- transitional period* means the period starting on the commencement and ending on the earlier of the following—
- (a) when the person is granted in respect of the railway operations—
- (i) accreditation under the national law, part 3, division 4; or
- (ii) an exemption under the national law, part 6, division 1 or 2 from compliance with section 62(1) of that law;
- (b) 3 years after the commencement.

Subdivision 3 Exemptions

67 Exemption for related bodies corporate

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) immediately before the commencement, a related body corporate of a corporation was exempt under the repealed Act, section 40(2) from the requirement to be accredited for railway operations because—
- (i) the operations were being carried out by or on behalf of both the corporation and the related body corporate; and
- (ii) the corporation was accredited for the operations; and

[s 68]

- (b) the operations are continuing to be carried out by or on behalf of both the corporation and the related body corporate on and after the commencement.
- (2) The related body corporate can not be prosecuted for an offence against the national law, section 62(1) if the act or omission constituting the offence—
  - (a) occurs during the transitional period; and
  - (b) had it occurred before the commencement, would not have constituted an offence against the repealed Act, section 39(1).
- (3) In this section—

transitional period means the period starting on the commencement and ending on the earlier of the following—

  - (a) when the related body corporate is granted in respect of the railway operations—
    - (i) accreditation under the national law, part 3, division 4; or
    - (ii) an exemption under the national law, part 6, division 1 or 2 from compliance with section 62(1) of that law;
  - (b) 2 years after the commencement.

68 Exemption for particular railway operations

- (1) A person who, immediately before the commencement, was exempt under the repealed Act, part 4, division 2, subdivision 4 from the requirements to be accredited for railway operations of a stated scope and nature is taken to be exempt under the national law, part 6, division 2 from the provisions of part 3, division 4 of that law in respect of the railway operations until the transitional period ends.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if, immediately before the commencement, the exemption was subject to a condition (including a restriction) imposed by the chief executive.

(3)	The exemption under the repealed Act is taken to be subject to the same condition as if it had been imposed by the Regulator.	1 2
(4)	In this section—	3
	transitional period means the period starting on the commencement and ending on the earlier of the following—	4 5
(a)	when the person is granted in respect of the railway operations—	6 7
(i)	accreditation under the national law, part 3, division 4; or	8 9
(ii)	an exemption under the national law, part 6 from compliance with section 62(1) of that law;	10 11
(b)	3 years after the commencement.	12
69	Compliance with registration conditions	13
(1)	A rail transport operator to whom section 68(1) of this Act applies can not be prosecuted for an offence against the national law, section 214 if the act or omission constituting the offence—	14 15 16 17
(a)	occurs during the transitional period; and	18
(b)	had it occurred before the commencement, would not have constituted an offence against the repealed Act, section 48(2).	19 20 21
(2)	In this section—	22
	transitional period means the period starting on the commencement and ending 3 years later.	23 24
70	Application for exemption	25
(1)	This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—	26 27
(a)	a person had applied under the repealed Act, section 43 to the chief executive to exempt the person from the requirement under the repealed Act, section 39(1) to be	28 29 30

[s 71]

	accredited for railway operations, on or at a low risk	1
	railway, of a stated scope and nature; but	2
	(b) the chief executive had not decided the application.	3
(2)	The application is taken to be an application made by the	4
	person to the Regulator under the national law, section 205 to	5 exempt the person from the requirement under section 62(1)	6
	of that law to be accredited for the railway operations.	7
(3)	Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the	8
	commencement—	9
	(a) the chief executive had given the applicant for the	10
	application a notice under the repealed Act, section	11
	43(3) requiring the applicant to supply further	12
	information or verify information supplied; but	13
	(b) the applicant had not complied with the notice.	14
(4)	The notice is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the	15
	applicant under the national law, section 205(3).	16

33

[s 74]

- (a) a person had made written representations under the repealed Act, section 50(1)(a)(ii) showing cause why the chief executive should not make a decision under section 49 of that Act in relation to the person's exemption; and
  - (b) the person had not withdrawn the representations; and
  - (c) the chief executive had not made a decision under section 49 of that Act in relation to the exemption.
- (4) The representations are taken to be written representations made by the person to the Regulator under the national law, section 213(3)(a)(ii).
- (5) A notice given by the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 50 notifying a person of the chief executive's decision under section 49 of that Act in relation to the person's exemption is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the person under the national law, section 213.

Subdivision 4 Private sidings

74 Connection between private siding and accredited railway

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
- (a) an accredited person for an accredited railway and a rail infrastructure manager of a private siding had entered into an agreement mentioned in the repealed Act, section 54(1) about the siding's connection with, or access to, the railway; and
  - (b) either—
    - (i) the accredited person had given the manager notice under the repealed Act, section 54(3)(a) of proposed action to disconnect the siding from the railway or close the connection between the siding and the railway; or

[s 75]

---

- (ii) the accredited person had obtained written agreement from the manager as mentioned in the repealed Act, section 54(3)(b) to proposed action to disconnect the siding from the railway or close the connection between the siding and the railway; and
  - (c) the proposed action had not been started or had been started but had not been finished.
- (2) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, section 54 of that Act continues to apply in relation to the proposed action.

75 Registration

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, immediately before the commencement—
  - (a) a rail infrastructure manager had lodged with the chief executive a request under the repealed Act, section 55 for the registration of a private siding; but
  - (b) the chief executive had not decided the request.
- (2) The request is taken to be an application made by the rail infrastructure manager to the Regulator under the national law, section 84 for registration of the manager in respect of the private siding.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the commencement, a private siding was registered under the repealed Act, section 55(3).
- (4) The rail infrastructure manager of the private siding is taken to be registered under the national law, section 86(1) in respect of the siding.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if, immediately before the commencement, the private siding's registration under the repealed Act was subject to a condition (including a restriction) imposed by the chief executive.

- (6) The rail infrastructure manager's registration under the national law is taken to be subject to the same condition as if it had been imposed by the Regulator. 1
3
- 76 Compliance with registration conditions 4
- (1) A rail infrastructure manager to whom section 75(4) of this Act applies can not be prosecuted for an offence against the national law, section 98(1) if the act or omission constituting the offence— 5
6
7
8
- (a) occurs during the transitional period; and 9

    - (b) had it occurred before the commencement, would not have constituted an offence against the repealed Act, section 107.
  - (2) In this section—

transitional period means the period starting on the commencement and ending 2 years later.

102 Annual accreditation fee

If the annual accreditation fee in respect of an accreditation to which section 97 of this Act applies for the financial year in which the commencement happens has been paid under the repealed Act, section 108—

- (a) the rail safety investigation fee payable by the accredited person for that financial year is taken to have been paid under section 59 of this Act; and
- (b) the annual fee payable in respect of the accreditation for that financial year is taken to have been paid under the national law, section 76.

Note—

Under the repealed Act, the annual accreditation fee charged and collected by the chief executive had a regulatory component and a rail safety investigation component. Under the national law, only the regulatory component is charged and collected by the Regulator. The rail safety component continues to be charged and collected by the chief executive under this Act.

103 Suspension for non-payment of fee

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
  - (a) an accreditation was suspended under the repealed Act, section 109(2)(a) for failure to pay an annual accreditation fee; and
  - (b) the suspension was in force immediately before the commencement.
- (2) The suspension is taken to be a suspension of the accreditation by the Regulator under the national law, section 76(3a) for failure to pay the fee.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the commencement—

[s 104]

---

- (a) the chief executive had given an accredited person a notice under the repealed Act, section 110(1)(a) stating that the chief executive was considering suspending the person's accreditation for failure to pay an annual accreditation fee; but
- (b) the chief executive had not made a decision under section 109(2)(a) of that Act in relation to the accreditation.
- (4) The notice is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the person under the national law, section 76(3b) stating that the Regulator is considering suspending the accreditation for the failure.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if, immediately before the commencement—
  - (a) a person had made written representations under the repealed Act, section 110(1)(a)(ii) showing cause why the chief executive should not suspend the person's accreditation under section 109(2)(a) of that Act for failure to pay an annual accreditation fee; and
  - (b) the person had not withdrawn the representations; and
  - (c) the chief executive had not made a decision under section 109(2)(a) of that Act in relation to the accreditation.
- (6) The representations are taken to be written representations made by the person to the Regulator and must be considered by the Regulator before making a decision under the national law, section 76(3a) in relation to the accreditation.

104 Suspension or revocation of accreditation

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
  - (a) immediately before the commencement, an accreditation for railway operations was subject to a decision of the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 109(2) to suspend the accreditation; and

[s 105]

- (b) the suspension was for a period that would have ended at a particular time on or after the commencement, whether or not the suspension took effect before the commencement.
- (2) The decision is taken to be a decision of the Regulator under the national law, section 73(2) to suspend the accreditation for the same period.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
- (a) immediately before the commencement, an accreditation for railway operations was subject to a decision of the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 109(2) to revoke the accreditation; and
- (b) the revocation would have taken effect at a particular time on or after the commencement.
- (4) The decision is taken to be a decision of the Regulator under the national law, section 73(2) to cancel the accreditation that takes effect at the same time.
- (5) A declaration that, immediately before the commencement, was in force under the repealed Act, section 109(3) is taken to be a declaration under the national law, section 73(2).

105 Procedure for suspending or revoking accreditation

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, immediately before the commencement—
- (a) the chief executive had given a person a notice under the repealed Act, section 110(1) stating that the chief executive was considering making a decision under section 109 of that Act of the type, and for the reasons, stated in the notice in relation to the person's accreditation; but
- (b) the chief executive had not made a decision under section 109 of that Act in relation to the accreditation.
- (2) The notice is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the person under the national law, section 73(3) stating that the

[s 106]

- Regulator is considering making a decision under section 73(2) of that law of the same kind and for the same reasons in relation to the accreditation. 1
3
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the commencement— 4 5
- (a) a person had made written representations under the repealed Act, section 110(1)(a)(ii) showing cause why the chief executive should not make a decision under section 109(2) or (3) of that Act in relation to the person's accreditation; and 6 7
9
10
- (b) the person had not withdrawn the representations; and 11
- (c) the chief executive had not made a decision under section 109 of that Act in relation to the accreditation. 12
13
- (4) The representations are taken to be written representations made by the person to the Regulator under the national law, section 73(3)(a)(ii). 14
15
16
- (5) A notice given by the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 110 notifying a person of the chief executive's decision under section 109(2) or (3) in relation to the person's accreditation is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the person under the national law, section 73(4). 17
18
19
20
21

106 Immediate suspension of accreditation 22

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if— 23
- (a) immediately before the commencement, an accreditation was suspended under the repealed Act, section 111(2); and 24
25
26
- (b) the suspension was for a period that would have ended at a particular time on or after the commencement. 27
28
- (2) The suspension is taken to be a suspension of the accreditation by the Regulator under the national law, section 74(1) for the same period. 29 30
31
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the commencement— 32
33

- (a) the chief executive had given a person a notice under the repealed Act, section 111(5) stating that the chief executive was considering making a decision under section 111(4)(b) of that Act to extend the period of a suspension of the person's accreditation for the reasons stated in the notice; but
- (b) the chief executive had not made a decision under section 111(4) of that Act in relation to the suspension.
- (4) The notice is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the person under the national law, section 74(4) stating that the Regulator is considering making a decision under section 74(2)(b) of that law to extend the period of the suspension for the same reasons.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if, immediately before the commencement—
- (a) a person had made written representations under the repealed Act, section 111(5)(a)(ii) showing cause why the chief executive should not make a decision under section 111(4)(b) of that Act extending the period of a suspension of the person's accreditation; and
- (b) the person had not withdrawn the representations; and
- (c) the chief executive had not made a decision under section 111(4)(b) of that Act in relation to the suspension.
- (6) The representations are taken to be written representations made by the person to the Regulator under the national law, section 74(4)(a)(ii).
- (7) A notice given by the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 111(6) notifying a person of the chief executive's decision under section 111(4)(b) of that Act to extend a suspension of the person's accreditation is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the person under the national law, section 74(5).

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the 11
commencement— 12
  - (a) an accredited person— 13
    - (i) had applied under the repealed Act, section 118 for 14
a variation of a condition of the person's 15 accreditation; or 16
    - (ii) had given to the chief executive an amended 17
application under the repealed Act, section 119(6); 18 but 19
  - (b) the chief executive had not decided the application. 20
- (2) The application is taken to be an application made by the 21 person to the Regulator under the national law, section 71 for 22 a variation of the condition. 23
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the 24
commencement— 25
  - (a) the chief executive had given the applicant for the 26
application a notice under the repealed Act, section 27
118(3) requiring the applicant to supply further 28
information or verify information supplied; but 29
  - (b) the applicant had not complied with the notice. 30

[s 112]

- (4) The notice is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the applicant under the national law, section 68(4) as applied by section 71(2) of that law.

112 Consultation with affected rail transport operators

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—
  - (a) the chief executive had given the applicant for the variation of a condition of an accreditation a direction under the repealed Act, section 119(2) to consult with a rail transport operator; but
  - (b) the applicant had not complied with the direction.
- (2) The direction is taken to be a direction given by the Regulator to the applicant under the national law, section 66(1) as applied by section 71(2) of that law.

113 Consideration of and decision on application for variation of condition

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
  - (a) the chief executive and an applicant for the variation of a condition of an accreditation had agreed under the repealed Act, section 121(2)(c) the period within which the application was required to be decided; but
  - (b) the chief executive had not decided the application.
- (2) For paragraph (b) of the definition of relevant period in the national law, section 69(3) as applied by section 71(2) of that law, the Regulator and the applicant are taken to have agreed the same period.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the commencement—
  - (a) the chief executive had given an applicant for the variation of a condition of an accreditation a notice under the repealed Act, section 121(2)(d) nominating

[s 114]

the period within which the application was required to be decided; but	1 2
(b) the chief executive had not decided the application.	3
(4) For paragraph (c) of the definition of relevant period in the national law, section 69(3) as applied by section 71(2) of that law, the Regulator is taken to have specified the same period.	4 5 6
(5) A notice given by the chief executive under the repealed Act, section 117 to an applicant for the variation of an accreditation notifying the applicant of the chief executive's decision on the application is taken to be a notice given by the Regulator to the applicant under the national law, section 71(3).	7 8 9 10 11 12
114 Surrender of accreditation	13
(1) This section applies if—	14
(a) immediately before the commencement, an accredited person had, for the purposes of the repealed Act, section 124, given the chief executive a notice of surrender for the person's accreditation; and	15 16 17 18
(b) the surrender would have taken effect on a day after the day of the commencement.	19 20
(2) The surrender takes effect on the day mentioned in subsection (1)(b) and the national law, section 75 does not apply.	21 22
Subdivision 11 Access disputes relating to rail safety	23 24
115 Request for chief executive to decide safety matter	25
(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—	26 27
(a) the chief executive had been asked to make a decision under the repealed Act, section 132(2) about a safety matter; but	28 29 30

[s 116]

---

- (b) the chief executive had not made the decision. 1
- (2) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, section 132 of that Act 2 continues to apply in relation to the request. 3
- 116 Chief executive given notice about dispute matter 4
- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the 5
commencement— 6
  - (a) the chief executive had been given a notice under the 7 repealed Act, section 133(2) about a dispute matter; but 8
  - (b) the chief executive had not decided whether or not to 9 give a safety matter direction under the repealed Act, 10 section 134(2) in relation to the dispute matter. 11
- (2) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, sections 133 to 136 and 12 part 11 of that Act continue to apply in relation to the dispute 13 matter. 14
- 117 Compliance with safety matter direction 15
- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the 16
commencement— 17
  - (a) a person had been given a safety matter direction under 18
the repealed Act, section 134; and 19
  - (b) the person had not complied with the direction; and 20
  - (c) the day by which the person was to have complied with 21 the direction would have been a day after the day of the 22
commencement. 23
- (2) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, the safety matter 24 direction continues in force and section 136 of that Act 25 continues to apply to the person. 26

Subdivision 12	Rail safety officers	1
118	Appointments	2
(1)	This section applies to a person—	3
(a)	who, immediately before the commencement, held an appointment as a rail safety officer under the repealed Act, section 137(1); and	4 5 6
(b)	who, on and from the commencement, is appointed to be a rail safety officer under the national law, section 135(1).	7 8 9
(2)	The person is taken to hold the appointment under the national law on the same conditions (including any condition about the term of the appointment) that applied to the person immediately before the commencement.	10 11 12 13
119	Identity cards	14
(1)	Subsection (2) applies if, immediately before the commencement, a rail safety officer to whom section 118 of this Act applies had been issued with an identity card under the repealed Act, section 139(1).	15 16 17 18
(2)	The identity card is taken to be an identity card given by the Regulator to the rail safety officer under the national law, section 136(1), but only until the Regulator gives the officer another identity card under that section.	19 20 21 22
(3)	The Regulator must give a rail safety officer to whom section 118 of this Act applies an identity card under the national law, section 136(1) as soon as practicable.	23 24 25

Subdivision 13      Enforcement

120      Continuation of repealed Act for compliance or           investigative purposes

Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, that Act continues to apply for compliance or investigative purposes under that Act in relation to any matter or thing arising before the commencement.

121      Completion of investigations required by chief executive           to be investigated

(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—

(a) a rail safety officer was required under the repealed Act, section 183 to investigate a notifiable occurrence or other occurrence; and

(b) 1 of the following applies—

(i) the rail safety officer had not given the chief executive the RSO report for the investigation as required under the repealed Act, section 184(1);

(ii) the chief executive had received from the rail safety officer the RSO report for the investigation but had not given a copy of it to the Minister as required under the repealed Act, section 184(2);

(iii) the Minister had received from the chief executive a copy of the RSO report for the investigation but had not tabled it as required under the repealed Act, section 184(3).

(2) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, that Act continues to apply in relation to the investigation.

122	Completion of other investigations	1
(1)	This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, a rail safety officer was investigating under the repealed Act a notifiable occurrence or other occurrence other than an occurrence to which section 121 of this Act applies, but had not completed the investigation.	2 3 4 5 6
(2)	Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, that Act continues to apply in relation to the investigation.	7 8
123	Improvement notices	9
(1)	This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—	10 11
(a)	a rail safety officer had given a person an improvement notice, or an amendment to an improvement notice, under the repealed Act, section 193(2); but	12 13 14
(b)	the person had not complied with the notice or amended notice.	15 16
(2)	The improvement notice or amended improvement notice is taken to be an improvement notice issued by a rail safety officer to the person under the national law, section 175(2).	17 18 19
124	Prohibition notices	20
	A prohibition notice (including an amended prohibition notice) that, immediately before the commencement, was in force under the repealed Act, section 200(2) is taken to be a prohibition notice under the national law, section 179(2).	21 22 23 24
Subdivision 14	Boards of inquiry	25
125	Completion of inquiries	26
(1)	This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—	27 28

[s 126]

- (a) a board of inquiry had been established or re-established under the repealed Act, part 8; and
  - (b) either—
    - (i) the board had not given the Minister a report of the board's findings as required under the repealed Act, section 212(1)(b); or
    - (ii) the Minister had received from the board the report of the board's findings but had not tabled a copy of it as required under the repealed Act, section 212(3).
- (2) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, part 8 of that Act continues to apply in relation to the board of inquiry.

Subdivision 15 Provisions about particular investigations or inquiries

126 Restricted information

- (1) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, part 9, division 2 of that Act continues to apply in relation to restricted information.
- (2) In this section—
restricted information means any information or other thing that, immediately before the commencement, was restricted information under the repealed Act, including because of section 314 of that Act.

127 Certificates of relevant person's involvement in investigation

- (1) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, section 241(1) of that Act continues to apply to a person to whom a certificate relates.
- (2) In this section—

certificate means a certificate that, immediately before the commencement, was in force under the repealed Act, section 240, including because of section 315 of that Act.

Subdivision 16 Internal and external review

128 Internal review of decisions

(1) Subsection (2) applies if, immediately before the commencement—

(a) an original decision had been made under the repealed Act; and

(b) the period within which a person could have applied for a review of the decision under the Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994, section 31 had not expired.

(2) The person may, before that period expires, apply under the national law, section 216(1) for a review of the original decision as if the decision had been made by the Regulator under that law.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the commencement—

(a) a person had applied under the Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994, section 31 for a review of an original decision; but

(b) the chief executive had not decided the application.

(4) The application is taken to be an application made by the person under the national law, section 216 for a review of the original decision as if the decision had been made by the Regulator under that law.

(5) Subsection (6) applies if, immediately before the commencement—

(a) a person had applied under the Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994, section 32(1) for a stay of an original decision; but

[s 129]

- (b) QCAT had not decided the application. 1
- (6) Despite the repeal of the repealed Act, the Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994, section 32 continues to apply in relation to the application for a stay. 2
3
4
- (7) Subsection (8) applies if, immediately before the commencement— 5 6
  - (a) a decision had been made under the Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994, section 32(2) or 34(1) in relation to an original decision; but 7
9
  - (b) the decision had not been given, or had not taken, effect. 10
- (8) The decision under the Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994— 11 12
  - (a) is taken to have been made under the national law, section 216 as if the decision had been made by the Regulator under the national law; and 13
14
15
  - (b) must be given or takes effect accordingly. 16
- (9) In this section— 17
original decision has the same meaning as in the repealed Act, section 259. 18 19

129 External review of decisions 20

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, immediately before the commencement— 21
22
  - (a) an internal review decision had been made under the Transport Planning and Coordination Act 1994, section 34(1); and 23 24
25
  - (b) the period within which a person could have applied for a review of the decision under the repealed Act, section 260(2) had not expired. 26
27
28
- (2) The person may, before that period expires, apply under the national law, section 217(1) for a review of the decision as if the decision had been made by the Regulator under section 216(4) of that law. 29
30
31

- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, immediately before the commencement— 1
2
- (a) a person had applied under the repealed Act, section 260(2) for a review of an internal review decision; but 3 4
- (b) QCAT had not decided the application. 5
- (4) The application is taken to be an application made by the person under the national law, section 217(1) for a review of the internal review decision as if the decision had been made by the Regulator under section 216(4) of that law. 6
7
9
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if, immediately before the commencement— 10
11
- (a) a person had applied under the QCAT Act, section 22(3) for a stay of an internal review decision to which subsection (4) of this section applies; but 12
13
14
- (b) QCAT had not decided the application. 15
- (6) The application is taken to be an application made by the person under the QCAT Act, section 22(3) for a stay of the internal review decision as if the decision had been made by the Regulator under the national law, section 216(4). 16
17
19
- (7) Subsection (8) applies if, immediately before the commencement— 20 21
- (a) QCAT had made a decision under the QCAT Act, section 22(3) or 24(1) in relation to an internal review decision; but 22
23
24
- (b) the decision had not been given, or had not taken, effect. 25
- (8) The decision under the QCAT Act— 26
- (a) is taken to have been made under that Act as if the internal review decision had been made by the Regulator under the national law; and 27
28
29
- (b) must be given or takes effect accordingly. 30
- (9) In this section— 31
- internal review decision* has the same meaning as in the repealed Act, section 260. 32

Subdivision 18      Miscellaneous

132      Transitional regulation-making power

- (1) A regulation (a transitional regulation) may make provision of a saving or transitional nature—
- (a) for which it is necessary to make provision to allow or facilitate the change from the operation of the provisions of the repealed Act to the operation of the provisions of the national law; and
- (b) for which this Act or the national law does not make provision or sufficient provision.
- (2) A transitional regulation may continue the operation of a provision of the repealed Act.
- (3) A transitional regulation may have retrospective operation to not earlier than the commencement.
- (4) To the extent to which a provision takes effect under subsection (3) from a day earlier than the day of the regulation's notification in the gazette, the provision does not operate to the disadvantage of a person by—
- (a) decreasing the person's rights; or
- (b) imposing liabilities on the person.
- (5) A transitional regulation must declare it is a transitional regulation.
- (6) A transitional regulation may only be made within 2 years after the commencement.
- (7) This section and a transitional regulation expire 3 years after the commencement.

133      Acts Interpretation Act 1954 not affected

Except to the extent this part or a regulation made under section 132 expressly provides differently, the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 applies in relation to the repeal of the repealed Act.

Division 4	Transitional provisions for Rail Safety National Law (Queensland) Act 2016	1 2 3
310 Definitions for division		4
In this division—		5
amending division means the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland) Act 2016 , part 7, division 6.		6 7 8
commencement means the commencement of the amending division.		9 10
former rail safety provision means schedule 1, part 2, division 3 of this Act as in force before the commencement.		11 12 13
311 Continuation of former rail safety provision		14
The former rail safety provision continues to apply in relation to circumstances that existed before the commencement as if that provision had not been replaced by the amending division.		15 16 17 18
144 Replacement of sch 1, pt 2, div 3 (Transport rail safety)		19
Schedule 1, part 2, division 3—		20
omit, insert—		21
Division 3	Rail safety	22
5 Relationship with Rail Safety National Law (Queensland)		23 24
(1) This section applies if—		25

- (a) this Act, in the absence of this section, 1 would apply in particular circumstances; 2 and 3
- (b) the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), 4 part 3, division 3 also applies in the 5 circumstances. 6
- (2) This Act does not apply in the circumstances to 7
the extent that the Rail Safety National Law 8
(Queensland), part 3, division 3 applies. 9
- Note—* 10
- See the Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), part 3, 11 division 2 for an explanation of the operation of that 12
Law and this Act in circumstances in which both that 13
Law and this Act apply. 14
- Example for subsection (2)—* 15
- Section 19(1) of this Act provides, among other matters, 16 for circumstances in which a duty is imposed on a 17 person who conducts a business or undertaking to 18 ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and 19 safety of workers mentioned in the section while the 20 workers are at work in the business or undertaking. 21
- The Rail Safety National Law (Queensland), part 3, 22 division 3 also provides for circumstances (the rail 23 safety circumstances) in which a duty is imposed on a 24 rail transport operator to ensure, so far as is reasonably 25 practicable, the safety of rail safety workers while at 26 work in the operator's railway operations. 27
- Accordingly, the duty under section 19(1) of this Act 28 that, apart from this section, would apply in the rail 29 safety circumstances does not include a duty to ensure, 30 so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of rail 31 safety workers while at work in the operator's railway 32 operations. 33
