47 Additional provisions in model rules

- (1) If the rules of an incorporated association do not provide for a matter, and a provision of the model rules in force after the registration of the association provides for the matter (the additional provision), the rules of the incorporated association are taken to include the additional provision.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the ability of an incorporated association to amend its rules under this Act.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the rules of an incorporated association provide that the subsection does not apply.

47A Grievance procedure

- (1) The rules of an incorporated association may set out a grievance procedure for dealing with any dispute under the rules between—
  - (a) a member and another member; or
  - (b) a member and the management committee; or
  - (c) a member and the association.
- (2) The grievance procedure must include mediation and may provide for a person to decide the outcome of the dispute.
- (3) A member may appoint any person to act on behalf of the member in the grievance procedure.
- (4) In applying the grievance procedure, the association must ensure that—
  - (a) each party to the dispute has been given an opportunity to be heard on the matter the subject of the dispute; and

(4) If the management committee decides under subsection (3) that a member of the committee who has a material personal interest in a matter may be present at a meeting while the matter is being considered, or may vote on the matter, the committee must ensure that—

(a) the committee's decision is recorded in the minutes of the meeting and disclosed at the next general meeting of the association; and

(b) details of the committee's decision are given to a member of the association, if requested by the member.

Maximum penalty for each member of the management committee—4 penalty units.

(5) If there are not enough management committee members to form a quorum to consider a matter
because of subsection (1)—

(a) 1 or more committee members, including the members who have a material personal interest in the matter, may call a general meeting; and

(b) the general meeting may pass a resolution to deal with the matter.

| (1) A person who was a member of the management committee of an incorporated association, or took part in the management of an incorporated association, at the time the association incurred a debt commits an offence if— | 2425262728 |

- (a) the association was insolvent at the time the debt was incurred or becomes insolvent by incurring that debt, or by incurring at that time debts including that debt; and
  - (b) immediately before the debt was incurred—
    - (i) there were reasonable grounds to expect that the association was insolvent; or
    - (ii) there were reasonable grounds to expect that, if the association incurred the debt, the association would become insolvent.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (2) In any proceedings against a person under subsection (1) it is a defence if the accused proves that—
  - (a) the debt was incurred without the accused's express or implied authority or consent; or
  - (b) at the time the debt was incurred, because of illness or for some other good reason, the accused did not take part in the management of the association; or
  - (c) at the time the debt was incurred, the accused had reasonable grounds to expect, and did expect, that the association was solvent at that time and would remain solvent even if it incurred that debt and any other debts that it incurred at that time.

70J Reliance on information or advice

- (1) This section applies if the reasonableness of the reliance of an officer of an incorporated association on information or advice given to the officer arises in a proceeding brought to decide whether the officer has performed a duty under

- this Act or an equivalent duty at common law or in equity. 1
2
- (2) Unless the contrary is proved, the officer's 3
reliance on the information or advice is taken to 4
be reasonable if— 5
- (a) the information or advice was given or 6
prepared by— 7
- (i) an employee of the association whom 8
the officer reasonably believed to be 9 reliable and competent in relation to 10
the matters concerned; or 11
- (ii) a professional advisor or expert in 12
relation to the matters that the officer 13 reasonably believed to be within that 14 person's professional or expert 15 competence; or 16
- (iii) another officer of the association in 17
relation to matters within the other 18
officer's authority; or 19
- (iv) a sub-committee of the association of 20
which the officer was not a member in 21 relation to matters within the 22
sub-committee's authority; and 23
- (b) the reliance was made— 24
- (i) in good faith; and 25
- (ii) after making an independent 26
assessment of the information or 27 advice, having regard to the officer's 28 knowledge of the association and the 29 complexity of the structure of the 30
association. 31

- (ii) that the applicant is qualified under subsection (2) to make the application; and
    - (iii) setting out the reasons why the applicant has formed the view that the incorporation of the association should be cancelled; and
  - (b) if subsection (2)(a) applies—a copy of the special resolution passed by the association—
    - (i) approving the making of the application; and
    - (ii) providing for the distribution of the surplus assets of the association; and
  - (c) the prescribed fee.
- (4) If the application is made by an association that has passed a special resolution mentioned in subsection (2)(a), the application must be made within 1 month after the passing of the special resolution.
- (5) In this section—
- surplus assets*, in relation to the cancellation of the incorporation of an association, means those assets that remain after the liabilities of the association have been discharged and the costs and expenses of the cancellation have been paid.

92B Consideration of application

- (1) The chief executive may make any inquiries necessary to establish the validity of any information provided in a declaration under section 92A(3)(a).
- (2) The chief executive may require the applicant to provide further information or documents to enable the chief executive to decide the application. 1
